

The New Jersey Department of Corrections, Office of Transitional Services is seeking a Bi-lingual MSW student to facilitate domestic violence groups, conduct individual counseling and make appropriate post-release referrals for the female offender population at Edna Mahan Correctional Facility for Women (EMCFW), Clinton, NJ.

Interested candidates must be bi-lingual, have a valid driver's license, be able to travel to EMCFW and pass a background check. Prior DV &/or sexual assault experience is desired. This paid opportunity consists of approximately 22 hours of work per week.

Please contact Leanne Cook @ Leanne.Cook@doc.state.nj.us including a cover letter, resume and hourly rate.

Submission deadline is March 19, 2010.